

ST. PATRICK'S DAY FESTIVAL & INTERNATIONAL BAND COMPETITION

Dublin & Limerick :: March 13-19, 2020

Come celebrate St. Patrick's Day in true Irish style by taking your marching band to Dublin to participate in the prestigious Dublin St. Patrick's Day Parade on March 17, 2020 as well as the Limerick International Band Parade and Competition held on March 15, 2020, in Limerick.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARADES

Saint Patrick's Day or the Feast of Saint Patrick (Irish: Lá Fhéile Pádraig, "the Day of the Festival of Patrick") is a cultural and religious holiday celebrated on March 17. It is named after Saint Patrick, the most commonly recognized of the patron saints of Ireland.

The first St. Patrick's Day parade was not recorded until 1762 and was held by Irish soldiers in the British army stationed in the 13 Colonies. The early parades were often military celebrations, at first of the Irish in the British army, and later of the Irish agitating for independence. The shortest St Patrick's Day parade in the world takes place in Dripsey, Cork. The parade lasts just 100 yards and travels between the village's two pubs. Saint Patrick's Day has come to be associated with everything Irish: anything green and gold, shamrocks and luck. Most importantly, to those who celebrate its intended meaning, St. Patrick's Day is a traditional day for spiritual renewal and offering prayers for missionaries worldwide.

So, why is it celebrated on March the 17th? One theory is that this is the day that St. Patrick died. Since the holiday began in Ireland, it is believed that as the Irish spread out around the world, they took with them their history and celebrations. The biggest observance of all is, of course, in Ireland. With the exception of restaurants and pubs, almost all businesses close on March 17. Being a religious holiday as well, many Irish attend Mass, where March 17 is the traditional day for offering prayers for missionaries worldwide before the serious celebrating begins.

THE FESTIVAL :: The St. Patrick's Day Festival & International Band Competition

Bands play a very important part in the St. Patrick's Day Celebrations in Dublin and throughout the St. Patrick's Festival itself. Bands from Ireland and around the world have thrilled audiences with their musical mastery and flair down through the years and we want you to be part of the future celebrations. The parade is attended by the President of Ireland and Lord Mayor of Dublin. The marching route is approximately 1.7 miles long and takes about 90 minutes to complete the parade route. The parade consists of marching bands, theatrical presentations and ceremonial elements. The parade is attended by over half a million people and viewed by millions of people all over the world.

The Limerick International Band Parade and Competition is held on the Sunday closest to St. Patrick's Day allowing your band to enjoy the festivities and participate in both the Dublin St. Patrick's Day Parade and the Limerick International Band Parade and Competition. All participating international bands are highlighted in media releases and given a special welcome by the mayor and citizens of Limerick. The parade route is approximately .93 miles long down the main thoroughfare of O'Connell Street. We have designed an itinerary that includes time in Limerick where you can explore much of Ireland's scenic West Coast.
