Dr. Gene Peterson is the Director of Choral Studies at California Baptist University Collinsworth School of Music. His diverse and extensive background in both academic and church contexts supports his leadership in choral arts ensembles, worship ensembles, and the vocal program at CBU. Additionally, Dr. Peterson mentors future conductors in CBU's graduate program in choral conducting.

Dr. Peterson's recent appointments include choral and music education faculties at Bethel University and The University of Tennessee. He previously held posts as music director and conductor for college, high school, church, and community choirs in California, Washington, Tennessee, and Minnesota. Ensembles under his leadership have performed in venues throughout the United States, Europe, Australia, and New Zealand, including the Sistine Chapel, the Sydney Opera House, Chicago Symphony Hall, and Carnegie Hall. Due to his reputation in the international choral community, Dr. Peterson is in high demand as a lecturer, choral clinician and adjudicator for local, regional, and international choral festivals and has conducted numerous honor choirs and all-state choirs.

Dr. Peterson has also held professional leadership roles, serving as High School Standards and Repertoire Chair for the California Choral Directors Association and as Bay Area Choral Representative for the California Music Educators Association. Additional professional posts include Men's Chorus Repertoire and Standards Chair for the Southern Division American Choral Directors Association, and the Southern Division Conference Planning Committee. He has served on the Executive Committee of the International Choral Festival, American Cantata, the Men's Choir Representative for Minnesota ACDA, and as the "Legacy Choir" leadership team for the National ACDA Convention.

Dr. Peterson holds a Bachelor of Music in Conducting and a Master of Arts from Chapman University in Orange, California, and the Doctor of Musical Arts in Choral Conducting from the University of Washington, Seattle. He is a consummate choral conductor who combines engaging charisma with musical expression and studied nuance. His breadth of expertise and experience, engaging and articulate teaching, and passion for mentoring the next generation of musicians is apparent through his work at the Collinsworth School of Music as well as his work around the world.

Custom Tours

No two ensembles are the same, so we take special delight in providing the best-fit tour for each choir, band or orchestra. We carefully listen to your needs and values so that together we can craft the perfect travel and performance experience for your program. Our team's background and focus uniquely equips us to partner with you from the initial discussion about meaningful destinations and appropriate performance venues, through registration and travel, as well as the fine-tuned specifics of each performance. Our artistic directors and travel coordinators will proactively work with you to make your trip a success by focusing on three phases: Development, Tour Implementation, and Concert Production.

Whether you want to perform in Europe, Asia, Latin America, Oceania, Africa or the U.S., in prestigious concert halls or historic churches, as a solo ensemble, or collaborating with local musicians, Perform International and Perform America are uniquely positioned to create a custom concert tour that fits your vision for your music program. Our team had the privilege of working for many prestigious ensembles, organizing their performance tours to cities near and far.
