

Building Bridges and Transforming Lives through the Power of Music

Dublin & Limerick, Ireland | March 15-21, 2022

St. Patrick's Day Parade & Limerick International Band Championship & Parade

Come celebrate St. Patrick's Day in true Irish style by taking your marching band to Dublin to participate in the prestigious Dublin St. Patrick's Day Parade on March 17, 2022 as well as the Limerick International Band Championship and Parade held on March 20, 2022, in Limerick.

The Setting

Dublin St. Patrick's Day Parade

Bands play a very important part in the St. Patrick's Day Celebrations in Dublin and throughout the St. Patrick's Festival itself. Bands from Ireland and around the world have thrilled audiences with their musical mastery and flair down through the years and we want you to be part of the future celebrations. The parade is attended by the President of Ireland and Lord Mayor of Dublin. The marching route is approximately 1.7 miles long and takes about 90 minutes to complete the parade route. The parade consists of marching bands, theatrical presentations and ceremonial elements. The parade is attended by over half a million people and viewed by millions of people all over the world.

Limerick International Band Championship and Parade

The Limerick International Band Championship and Parade is held on the Sunday closest to St. Patrick's Day allowing your band to enjoy the festivities and participate in both the Dublin St. Patrick's Day Parade and the Limerick International Band Championship and Parade. All participating international bands are highlighted in media releases and given a special welcome by the mayor and citizens of Limerick. The parade route is approximately .93 miles long down the main thoroughfare of O'Connell Street. We have designed an itinerary that includes time in Limerick where you can explore much of Ireland's scenic West Coast.

The Organizers: Perform International

"Building Bridges and Transforming Lives through the Power of Music"

Music and travel are a powerful combination. That is why Perform International has curated a team with a passion and expertise in both. We desire to bring the transformative power of international travel and performance to your program and your ensemble.

We see every trip and festival as an opportunity to celebrate the unique character of each musician while building a sense of unity and belonging through the universal language of music.

Your passion is our priority. Whether you've begun planning or are still dreaming, our expertise will make your ideal performance and travel experience a reality. From our first call until you return home, we will be your proactive partner, allowing you to focus on what matters most—your people and your program.

We look forward to working alongside you to create a memorable, meaningful, and cost effective tour for your choir, band, or orchestra.

Perform International's Artistic Team

Jerry F. Junkin

Artistic Director of Bands, Perform International

Jerry F. Junkin serves as the Artistic Director and Conductor of the Dallas Wind Symphony, as well as Director of Bands and the Frank C. Erwin, Jr. Centennial Professor of Music at the University of Texas at Austin, where he also holds the title of University Distinguished Teaching Professor. In 2003 he was appointed Music Director and Conductor of the Hong Kong Wind Philharmonia. The New York Times named the recent release on the Reference Recordings label with Jerry Junkin and The University of Texas Wind Ensemble, Bells for Stokowski, one of the best classical CDs of 2004.

Professor Junkin became conductor of The University of Texas Wind Ensemble in the fall of 1988, following an appointment as Director of Bands at the University of South Florida. In addition to his responsibilities as Professor of Music and Conductor and Music Director of the UT Wind Ensemble, he serves as Head of the Conducting Division and teaches courses in conducting and wind band literature. He is a recipient of the Texas Excellence in Teaching awards, presented annually by the Ex-Student's Association.

Jerry Junkin became the Artistic Director and Conductor of the Dallas Wind Symphony in the fall of 1993. Performances under the direction of Mr. Junkin have won the praise of such notable musicians as John Corigliano, David Del Tredici, Gunther Schuller, Karel Husa, William Kraft, Jacob Druckman and Michael Colgrass, among many others. In February of 2005 he led The University of Texas Wind Ensemble in the world premiere performance of Corigliano's Circus Maximus: Symphony No. 3, in both Austin and New York's Carnegie Hall. Maintaining an active schedule as a guest conductor, clinician and lecturer, Mr. Junkin has appeared in those capacities in forty-eight states and on five continents. In 2005 he was presented the Grainger Medallion by the International Percy Grainger Society.
